SITUATION

Sarnesfield Grange is situated just west of the historical village of Weobley and in the heart of north Herefordshire's stunning countryside. Road access to key market towns be it Hay on Wye, Leominster and the City of Hereford is good as is the choice of excellent schools throughout the area. Weobley, an historic black and white village provides everyday needs with a shop, butcher, pubs, cafe, dentist and doctor's surgery. Both Hereford and Leominster have railway links north to Manchester, south to Newport with its connection to London, Paddington and east to Worcester and Birmingham.

THE PROPERTY

Sarnesfield Grange, formerly The Rectory, was part of the neighbouring Sarnesfield Estate. Either late Georgian or early Victorian in its construction, it remains to this day an imposing family house.

The stone pillared gates form the entrance, and the drive passes the house beyond which is ample car parking next to the various outbuildings and garaging.

The formal entrance to the house is approached from the garden on the south side of the house. The half glazed front door is sheltered by a deep porch. Off the hall with its parquet floor, the main staircase, cloakroom and WC and access to the cellar is the Study with its wood burning stove and the Drawing Room with an open fireplace, bay window seats and fitted cupboards. The Dining Room has a very similar layout with a door in the corner which goes through to the Kitchen. Here there is an Everhot stove with 3 ovens, a side dresser, fitted sink unit and cupboards and an oak floor. Off the back Hall with its door to the garden, is an excellent Pantry. Beyond the Kitchen is the Sitting Room also used as a Breakfast Room mainly double glazed with a wood burning stove, fitted bookshelves and French doors out into the garden. Off this room is the Utility/Laundry Room with fitted cupboards and an external door.

The main staircase leads up to a wide, bright, ballustraded landing off which are four bedrooms (one used as a Nursery) and two bathrooms.

A further staircase with a cupboard underneath arrives at the second floor landing with fitted cupboards and three further bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which is ensuite. Beyond the ensuite bathroom is a very useful attic storage room.

THE GARDENS & OUTBUILDINGS

The formal gardens are on the south side of the house where there is a wide terrace and extensive lawns with croquet in mind, deep borders and overlooked by a fine cedar along with other mature hardwoods including a copper beech and maple. A brick wall runs along one side with a shed hidden in the trees. On the other side of the drive are three raised vegetable beds, a greenhouse and orchard beyond.

There is a useful range of buildings including a timber and brick cart shed now used as a garden store and workshop and an external staircase to rooms above. Opposite here is a two bay open sided timber car port with an inspection pit. A new garage beyond has three bays two of which are lockable and loft storage. The old stable building at the far end of the garden has two stables and an adjoining woodshed and former pigscote.
